

Site 436

T.D. = 397.5 m

*Ash beds are counted by core and include disturbed patches interpreted to originally have been ash beds.

Only pebbles which were not found at the top of the core are shown, thus they do not represent downhole contamination.